

Diversion Workshop Schedule

7:30-8:00 am - Check in - light refreshments provided

8:00-9:00 am –

Clemmie Greenlee, Resident Director, Eden House & Human Trafficking Survivor – will provide an experiential overview of the ill effects of human trafficking on a human life and ways to find avenues to reclaim one's lost sense of self.

Kenneth Baker, Program Director of Prostitution Solicitation Diversion Program in Nashville, TN - will discuss an overview of the Prostitution Diversion Program in Nashville, the legal structure of that program and program details.

John Krentel, JD, LCSW - will discuss the brand new Prostitution Diversion Solicitation Program in New Orleans, the legal structure of the program and program details, along with other community-based options for Diversion Programs.

9:00-10:00 am –

Judge Joy Lobrano, 4th Circuit Court of Appeal, 2nd District - Professionalism - Judge Lobrano will discuss attorneys' and judicial officers' role as a public servant in "professionalism" in addressing critical social issues impacting the judicial system.

10:00-10:30 am –

Andree Mattix M.ED.,L.P.C.,L.M.F.T. - Director of Social Services Orleans Parish District Attorney's Office will discuss Diversion programs in New Orleans.

10:30-11:00 am –

Chief Ronald Serpas or his representative will discuss the role of the police in fighting human trafficking and the police operations and arrests that are being made in connection with the sex trade.

11:00-noon - Katherine Green, JD, Clerk to Judge Dick and Former Head of the Human Trafficking Task Force for the Middle District of Louisiana and Kara Van de Carr, JD, Executive Director of Eden House and former U.S. Diplomat charged with writing the Trafficking in Persons Report for the Country of Jamaica - will provide a brief overview of the federal law on human trafficking (The Trafficking Victims Protection Act) and a more in-depth discussion of Louisiana's anti-human trafficking laws. In addition, state and federal court cases involving prosecutions of human trafficking in Louisiana will be discussed. The program will also provide a brief overview of human trafficking as a global crime and statistics regarding human trafficking abroad and in the US. Attendees will also be given a brief summary of services available to adult survivors of human trafficking available at Eden House, the first facility for human trafficking survivors in Louisiana.

---

Email Announcement

Do You Want 4 Hours Of Free Legal CLEs (including One Hour of Professionalism)?

Diversion Programs and Prostitution: Options For New Orleans

WHEN: Saturday, November 16, 2013 From 8:00 a.m. - 12:00 Noon
Registration 7:30 a.m. (Breakfast and Refreshments)
WHERE: Trinity Episcopal Church - Counseling and Training Center
2108 Coliseum St, New Orleans, LA 70130
(504) 522-7557

Check-In from 7:30 – 8:00 a.m. With Coffee, Juice and Muffins.

Speakers include:

Judge Joy Cossich Lobrano

Louisiana State Fourth Circuit Fourth Circuit Of Appeal

[Judges, Prosecutors, Law Enforcement Officers, and Government Employees Working Within the Criminal Justice System: Public Servants, Pro Bono Services, or Just Doing My Job?] [Legal Professionalism - 1 CLE Hour]

Katherine K. Green, J.D and Kara Van De Carr

Co-Founders Eden House, New Orleans

[State, National And International On Ill Effects Of Human Trafficking]

John B. Krentel, J.D., L.C.S.W.

Former Behavioral Health Court Liaison & Bd. Member Eden House

[Diversion Programs - Community Needs And Options]

Kenneth Baker, Program Director of Prostitution Solicitation Diversion Program In Association With Magdalene House, Nashville, Tennessee

[ Diversion Program In Nashville]

_____, Assistant District Attorney, Orleans Parish